

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION AT DAYTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 3:12-MJ-238

-vs-

Magistrate Judge Michael J. Newman

JANINE A. ADAMS,

Defendant.

ORDER OF DETENTION

A bench warrant was issued by the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, Criminal Division, on April 27, 2012. Defendant was arrested in Ohio on July 3, 2012 and appeared before the undersigned today, July 5, 2012, with Federal Public Defender counsel appointed by the Court.

At today's hearing, Defendant was advised of her rights. Through counsel, Defendant waived her right to an identity hearing.

The United States then moved for detention. The Court's inquiry on such a motion is to determine whether any condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142 will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant as required and the safety of the community. In support of its motion, the United States argued that Defendant poses a serious risk of flight. See 18 U.S.C. §3142(f)(2)(A). In response, the Defendant, through counsel, waived her right to a detention hearing.

Based upon the argument presented and for the reasons stated on the record in open court, the Court finds by clear and convincing evidence there is a serious risk the Defendant will flee, and that no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142 will reasonably assure the appearance of the Defendant in the Superior Court for the District of Columbia.

The Government's Motion to detain, therefore, is GRANTED. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that:

(1) Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant has advised the Court that she suffers from a skin condition and also a respiratory condition, that she has been denied access to her medication. Defendant shall be given access to such medication immediately. If she was not in possession of such medication at the time of her arrest, and such medication can be brought by a friend or relative to her, officials at the Butler County Jail shall make all reasonable and appropriate efforts to give such medication to Defendant immediately. If her skin or respiratory conditions merit prompt and/or immediate medical care, it shall be afforded to Defendant by jail officials;

(3) Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

(4) Order of a Court of the United States, or upon request of an attorney for the United States, the person in charge of the facility in which Defendant is confined deliver the Defendant to a United States Marshal or his deputy for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding and/or transfer to the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

Defendants who appeal to a district judge from this Order must, at the same time as filing the appeal, order a transcript of the detention hearing from the court reporter.
